The Square Yard Interior Designers

To Create Luxury Room for 2008

Mansion in May Show House in Far Hills

Summit, NJ – March 13, 2008. The Square Yard is going to Far Hills in May. The store's designers have been selected to present a room of their own creation for the Mansion in May Designer Show House and Gardens Tour to be held at "Froh Heim," a circa 1923 Spanish-style home in Far Hills, NJ during the month of May.

The Square Yard store designers, Joanne Adams and Donna Kelly, in conjunction with Nancee Brown of Nancee Brown Interiors, have been selected to design a special room, entitled "Dress in Elegance," which will depict the luxurious glamour of a 1940's dressing room. Because it is "Draped in satin, fur and silk, one might expect Carol Lombard to walk in to dress at any moment" stated David Trotz, General Manager of The Square Yard.

Sponsored by the Women's Association of Morristown Memorial Hospital (WAMMH), this year's tour is the 14th Mansion in May Designer Show House and Gardens Tour. The work of approximately fifty top interior designers and landscape architects will be showcased. The house boasts 7 bedrooms, 8 baths and 8 fireplaces, with gardens set on 11.4 acres in Far Hills.

“We want to give back to our community by donating our creative talents, bringing with us our full design showroom capabilities to help the Women’s Association of Morristown Memorial Hospital and its vital fundraising work,” said David Trotz. “We are delighted our designers will be participating in the Show House to advance the Valerie Fund Children’s Center at Goryeb Children’s Hospital.”

The Square Yard, located on Springfield Ave. in Summit, NJ, is enjoying its 35th year as one of the premier design centers on the east coast. The Square Yard provides complete one-stop design service for clients in the community of Summit and as far away as The Hamptons, offering the traditional and the exotic in luxury floor coverings in wood, carpet and tile, custom wall coverings, window treatments and home furnishings.
