Partner to Design a Master Bath for Twin Maples Centennial Show House!

Summit, NJ – June 6th, 2008. The Square Yard is coming home in October. Not the store itself, but the store designers. Along with The Glassmith Shop of Summit, The Square Yard has been selected to present a room of their own creation for Twin Maples Centennial Show House in their home town of Summit.

For the second time this year, The Square Yard store designers, Joanne Adams, Donna Kelly, Mary Jo Malone, and Dennis Cowden have been selected to create a special place in a historic show house. The Square Yard, in conjunction with Steve Weinberg of The Glassmith Shop, will design a special master bathroom in the Twin Maples Centennial Show House.

“We want to give back to our community by donating our creative talents and bringing with us our full design showroom capabilities to help The Cancer Center at Overlook Hospital and the Twin Maples Historic Preservation Fund,” said David Trotz, General Manager of The Square Yard. “We are delighted our designers will be participating by showing their design talents and supporting our town.

The Twin Maples Centennial Show House, located in picturesque Summit, New Jersey, will be open daily from October 1st through November 2nd 2008; closed Mondays. Proceeds from the Twin Maples Centennial Show House events will benefit both The Cancer Center at Overlook Hospital and the Twin Maples Historic Preservation Fund. It is listed on the National and New Jersey Registers of Historic Places and serves as the home of the Fortnightly Club and the Summit Junior Fortnightly Club, both 501(c)3 charities.

The Fortnightly Club, together with the Overlook Hospital Auxiliary and the Summit Junior Fortnightly Club, is very pleased to invite you to visit the Twin Maples Centennial Show House, celebrating the Estate’s “Second Century of Service” to our many area charities. The Fortnightly Club, founded in 1893, purchased the Twin Maples Estate as its headquarters in 1949. Twin Maples was restored in 2007 and opened her doors to area charities for their fundraising events and meetings at charity rates.
