The Square Yard

Designs a Master Bath for Twin Maples Centennial Show House!

Summit, NJ – Oct 1st, 2008. The Square Yard has come home in October. Not the store itself, but the store designers. Along with The Glassmith Shop of Summit, The Square Yard presents a room of its own creation for Twin Maples Centennial Show House in its home town of Summit, just 4 block from their fabulous showroom.

For the second time this year, The Square Yard store designers, Joanne Adams and Donna Kelly, have provided their services to create a special place in a historic show house. The Square Yard, in conjunction with Steve Weinberg of The Glassmith Shop, has designed a special master bathroom in the Twin Maples Centennial Show House. The chartreuse hue of the botanical wallpaper, together with traditional fixtures, gives this exquisite master bath a feeling of elegance. The combination of the classic marble floor with the contemporary iridescent glass tile, and the time-honored fittings in the spacious shower creates an inviting timeless look.

“We want to give back to our community by donating our creative talents and bringing with us our full design showroom capabilities to help The Cancer Center at Overlook Hospital and the Twin Maples Historic Preservation Fund,” said David Trotz, General Manager of The Square Yard. “We are delighted our designers participated by showing their design talents and supporting our town.

The Twin Maples Centennial Show House, located in picturesque Summit, New Jersey, will be open daily from October 1st through November 2nd 2008; closed Mondays. Proceeds from the Twin Maples Centennial Show House events will benefit both The Cancer Center at Overlook Hospital and the Twin Maples Historic Preservation Fund. It is listed on the National and New Jersey Registers of Historic Places and serves as the home of the Fortnightly Club and the Summit Junior Fortnightly Club, both 501(c)3 charities.

The Fortnightly Club, together with the Overlook Hospital Auxiliary and the Summit Junior Fortnightly Club, is very pleased to invite you to visit the Twin Maples Centennial Show House, celebrating the Estate’s “Second Century of Service” to our many area charities. The Fortnightly Club, founded in 1893, purchased the Twin Maples Estate as its headquarters in 1949. Twin Maples was restored in 2007 and opened her doors to area charities for their fundraising events and meetings at charity rates.

The Square Yard, located on Springfield Ave. in Summit, NJ, is enjoying its 35th year as one of the premier design centers on the east coast. The Square Yard provides complete one-stop design service for clients in the community of Summit and as far away as The Hamptons, offering the traditional and the exotic in luxury floor coverings in wood, carpet and tile, custom wall coverings, window treatments and home furnishings.
